

9:45
Hour

Embracing Communities on Sunday Morning - Westheimer Campus

Each class is a little different, with some meeting closer to 10 a.m.

Luminous

B151

A class of young adults, made up mostly of singles, ages 20s and 30s, where a discussion on Paul's letter to the Ephesians is led by Mike Stroman and Scooter Smith.

Discovery

Rev. Linda Christians' Office

A small class for young adults ages 21-34, features round-table Biblical discussion and fellowship led by Steve and Ruth McCurdy. This discussion based hour explores the week's scriptures from the lectionary to discover how they speak to our daily lives is for singles and couples.

Three Strands

B226 (second floor in Youth Building)

This new class for engaged and recently married couples in their mid-20's through 30's strives to create a Christ-centered community for young couples where they can grow in their faith together.

Compass

A207 (Activities Center, 2nd floor)

A growing class for committed couples in their late 20's through 30's explores a variety of studies, both traditional and non-traditional. The class sponsors regular service and social activities.

Fellowship

B241 (second floor in Youth Building)

This class consists of married couples in their 30s and 40s, all with young children. Members strive to grow in their faith through fellowship and sharing life experiences. This class is a biblically-based study designed to promote individual growth, build relationships, and strengthen the family. The class is taught by member rotation and periodic guest speakers.

Couples Class

R22 (Second floor above the Rotunda)

Small discussion-based class for married couples in their 30's and 40's. In an informal and open forum, the class focuses on the Sermon Series.

Common Ground

B227 (second floor in Youth Building)

Formed in September 2010, the class consists of parents with young children looking for social and spiritual growth through fellowship and worship together. Social gatherings and service projects are planned monthly. Lessons consist of self-teaching (within the class) and guest teachers.

Horizons

R23 (Second floor above the Rotunda)

Primarily for couples in their late-30's through early 50's, featuring relevant Faith-in-Life topics and Bible study. Led by class members and guest speakers. Service projects and social events with families and couples.

Genesis

R21 (Second floor above the Rotunda)

Faith issues relating to life experiences & Bible studies in a lecture/discussion format are taught by Steve Lufburrow. Socials and service projects emphasized. Mostly couples aged mid 40's-60's plus.

Sojourners

R25 (Second floor above the Rotunda)

For single adults, ages 40-65. Topics ranging from Bible study to faith issues in daily living are presented by Phil Murray in a lecture/interactive discussion format. Regular social and service opportunities

Randy Smith Bible Study

Parlor

A large group for persons 45 to 85 meet in a caring atmosphere for Biblical study. Often marked by spirited discussions, the lessons are led by Hank Coleman and Jim Henderson [or vice versa]. This Fall the class begins a study of the Gospel of our church's namesake, St. Luke.

20s

30s

40s+

St. Luke's
United Methodist Church

45+

60+

All Ages

11:00
hour

St. Luke's Study

C263-264

A large, socially active class of couples and singles, 45 and up. Thought provoking lessons presented each week by class members and guest teachers on a wide range of spiritual topics.

Harmony

Chapel Parlor

For persons, 50's and up, who enjoy fellowship and lively discussion and whose topics include contemporary issues and spiritual growth. Beginning in November, the class will be discussing topics from "Jesus was a Liberal," by Rev. Scotty McClennan.

Baker-Wesley Class

Hines Baker West

These 65 plus Senior Adults enjoy fellowship and are inspired and challenged by the Adult Bible Study series.

Bible Discovery

Library

All ages, couples and singles, with an exciting interactive format and featuring a mix of class discussion and lecture of in-depth Bible topics taught by Jack and Fran Steele.

Charles Wesley

Choir Room

A concentrated 30-minute class, open to all adults. The presentations and discussion focus on Biblical and theological topics. The class was created primarily to serve member of the chancel choir and taught by Don Brynes.

Open Arms

C167

A small, friendly class with Bible-based curriculum, excellent teachers and lively discussion. The class is open to all ages, married or single, and open to all ideas, service opportunities and fun!

Good Will

Rotunda

A large group, of all ages, couples and singles, studying Bible and Faith-in-Life topics in a lecture format, taught by Richard Ethun. Sponsors regular social and service events. The class embraces empty nesters, young professionals, grandparents, great grandparents, and young adults attending with parents.

Covenant

C262

All ages exploring specific books of the Bible in a round table setting with discussion on the implications for every day life. Leader poses questions and allows each member to comment on their perspectives. This increases our understanding of the Word in our personal lives.

Friendship

R11

All ages discussing the Bible and Faith-in-Life topics in a round-table setting, gathering frequently for social and service events.

The Journey

R24(Second floor above the Rotunda)

An adult and family class, crossing generations, offers an in-depth analysis Bible study which includes community, study, sharing, questions, life application and accountability.

Parents of Youth and Confirmands

B229 (Second floor in youth building)

This class is open to all parents of youth and will review the same lessons that students are learning in Confirmation Class. Class runs September through May.

Joy Class

Fellowship Hall

Jesus, Others, Yourself is the focus of class for adults with special needs. The class features Bible lessons, music, and prayer.

St. Luke's
United Methodist Church