

Robert Bradley “Brad” White

God laid his hand on Brad and healed him for all eternity.

He is survived by his wife of 32 years, Patricia J. White; daughters Aron E. Larson & husband Nicholas Larson, Abigail J. Salvato & husband Carlo Salvato, III, and Andersen H. White; brother Benjamin W. White & wife Yvonna; and mother Judy W. Shaw.

A lifetime resident of Houston, Brad graduated from Westfield High School in 1982 and attended North Harris County College.

Brad loved people and he loved life! Above all else, he cherished his family. A doting father, he was so very proud of his daughters. He lived his life by example, and the legacy he leaves to them is one of honor, faithfulness and courage.

Brad’s life was richly blessed by his many friends. His friendships were formed across all spectrums of his life, lasting a lifetime.

His passion and joy was music. He was a gifted and talented guitarist, forming a band while in high school and reuniting 30 years later to form a band he named The Return.

From an early age, Brad was hard-working, dedicated and resourceful, beginning with a paper route at age 14. He was a natural leader who inspired others to achieve more than they ever expected of themselves and was respected as a compassionate mentor. A part of the restaurant industry, he was a long-time, loyal and proud member of Saltgrass Restaurants.

Brad will be remembered as a person who lived life! He leaves us with a better understanding of the words character, integrity, honesty, strength, joy, compassion, kind, funny and cool. As a tribute to Brad, we can magnify these traits within ourselves and become kinder and more loving. He would like that. And as his friends would say BLB - Be like Brad.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Brad’s memory to Cancer Research Institute at <https://fundraise.cancerresearch.org/fundraiser/2818992>.

He crossed over and the angels sang. Heaven is ever more joyful now!

*"I thank my God every time I remember you."
— Philippians 1:3*

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
